All questions are optional. Follow each question's directions.

Write your answers to the open questions in the space provided.

Please help the host plan the named Thanksgiving or Friendsgiving potluck. Every question is optional, and bringing something is optional too. Use the party code supplied by the host, not children's names. Contributions are proposals until the host confirms them. Do not include medical information; contact the host privately about ingredient or access concerns.

1. What party code did the host give your group?

2. How many people are included in your party's current attendance plan?
